ERRATUM

Released: February 8, 2008

By the Chief, Media Bureau:

On February 1, 2008, the Commission released the Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (FCC 07-208) in the above-captioned proceeding. This Erratum amends the Report and Order as follows:

1. Paragraph 50, page 22, is revised to read as follows:

“We recognize that the industry should receive an appropriate amount of time to review and to take steps to comply with the new rate regulations set forth above. Section 76.970(j)(3), which contains new or modified information collection requirements that have not been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (“OMB”), is effective upon OMB approval. Section 76.970 is effective 90 days after date of publication in the Federal Register or upon OMB approval of § 76.970(j)(3), whichever is later. Thus, at a minimum, the new rate regulations will not become effective until 90 days after publication in the Federal Register. After OMB approval is received, the Commission will publish a document in the Federal Register announcing the effective date of the rules requiring OMB approval and those whose effective date was delayed pending OMB approval of other rules.”

2. Paragraph 86, page 35 is revised to read as follows:

“Effective Date. Sections 76.975(h)(1), (2) and (3) and (i) are effective 30 days after date of publication in the Federal Register. Sections 76.970(j)(3), 76.972(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (g); 76.975(d), (e), (g) and (h)(4); and 76.978, which contain new or modified information collection requirements that have not been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (“OMB”), are effective upon OMB approval. Section 76.970 is effective 90 days after date of publication in the Federal Register or upon OMB approval of § 76.970(j)(3), whichever is later. The effective date of Sections 76.972(f) and 76.975 (b), (c) and (f), which do not require OMB approval, is delayed until OMB approval of the aforementioned rule sections. After OMB approval is received, the Commission will publish a document in the Federal Register announcing the effective date of the rules requiring OMB approval and those whose effective date was delayed pending OMB approval of other rules.”

3. Paragraph 89, page 36 is revised to read as follows:

“IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, Sections 76.975(h)(1),(2) and (3) and (i) are effective 30 days after date of publication in the Federal Register. Sections 76.970(j)(3), 76.972(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (g); 76.975(d), (e), (g) and (h)(4); and 76.978, which contain new or modified information collection requirements that have not been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (“OMB”), are effective upon OMB approval. Section 76.970 is effective 90 days after date of publication in the Federal Register or upon OMB approval of § 76.970(j)(3), whichever is later. The effective date of Sections 76.972(f) and 76.975(b), (c) and (f) is delayed until OMB approval of the aforementioned rule sections. After OMB approval is received, the Commission will publish a document in the Federal Register announcing the effective date of the rules requiring OMB approval and those whose effective date was delayed pending OMB approval of other rules.”
